(See Special Below)

When we began to serve the public as it should be served-with honest prices-some jobbers and wholesalers sent us word that they wouldn't sell us groceries because we wouldn't keep up the prices. We refused to be bullied, and were forced to go to the producers for our stock. They wouldn't refuse our money-We paid cash, and took cash discounts, and we learned that we could get BETTER, FRESH-ER, NEWER groceries for less money than we had been paying. We have shown them that we could sell at lower prices and give better satisfaction to our customers, and now they all want to sell to us, but we have found out that we can save our customers money by buying direct. Just stop and think.
